Leadership|Friendship|Service

Words from the President:

There will be a special meeting called at 4:00pm this Sunday, May 6th, to discuss the issue of Advisers.

The meeting will be moderated so that anyone can say whatever they wish without fearing attack or reprisal.

We will then have a discussion about the roles of the Advisers and the cause of the current impasse between Advisers and Actives, after which we will propose solutions to follow up on.

Please come out if you have anything to say about this matter. Thank you.

in Leadership, Friendship, & Service,

Aaron Manley

What was one of your most embarrassing moments?

When I was younger, I tried to jump over a puddle of water. I was holding my lunch, but I slipped and fell on my back, and my back was all muddy. Everyone laughed at me, and I left my lunch there.

If you had to choose between a millions bucks and being able to fly, which would you choose and why?

I'll take flight, get it? Haha. Yeah, I would take flying and use it to travel and possibly use it to make money by letting people hop on my back or something.

What's the longest you've gone without taking a bath?

The longest I've gone without taking a bath was probably three or four days I believe.
