EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

Check out some super fun action-packed highlighted events from this term so far!

Fruit Cup Sale!

These fruit cup sales have been a success and will continue to be as fellow Bruins are attracted by our lovely brothers' passion and creativity. The creativity is exemplified in the picture on the left.

Operation Gobble Service

These handsome brothers are volunteering through the LA Food Bank to fight hunger in our community. Tasks included sorting, inspecting and repackaging donated food items from local food drives. Here, our lovely brother Miye is curiously examining a pineapple while pledge Will Chin is trying to look cool for a picture.

Rho Rho IC

Chi Chapter at Rho Rho! Anonymous sources reveal that Rho Rho really enjoyed our IC visit. The smiles in this picture are priceless. Thank you brothers for representing our chapter so well! Also, the attendance for this event was INSANE. Thank you again!

Pledge IC

We thought that we should highlight the pledges at least once in this newsletter. This is the Pledge IC at Santa Monica Beach. Here, there seems to be people crawling under each other's legs, quite an embarrassing activity, some might think. However, pledge Jack Fung still manages to pose at the right moment for this instantaneous, action packed picture.

CAMPOUT

On the Halloween weekend, Chi chapter went up to the mountains for the Alpha Mu chapter campout. Pledges participated in several bonding activities and games that allowed them to work together and grow closer as a class, while the actives played games of their own. Although weather conditions were extreme due to the cold and rain, the event was overall a success as the chapter grew closer through the games, activities, and food provided. Thank you all pledges, actives, alumni, drivers, pledge parents, and PAC for making this weekend a blast!

REVELATIONS

On 11/9, big little pairs were finally revealed as the AM pledges received their bigs and were welcomed into their new lines and families! Each family celebrated afterwards with a KBBQ dinner.

Looking Good Night

Good Luck on Finals!

Oh, and Merry Christmas. But we all know that the finals stress is looming in our minds. Hopefully we were able to rid you of that stress for a brief moment with this awesome newsletter. We didn't want to overload your brain with too much information so this should be a very quick read. HAVE A GREAT WINTER BREAK EVERYONE!
