

LFS Event Spotlight!

Interview with
Pledge Eric Ting

Spring Fling Service, Thursday April 18, 2013

We spent time with the kids in their classroom and out in the playground as well. We made a flower pot with them and had them decorate the pot with their own drawing of whatever they wanted to draw. I liked interacting with the kids and didn't dislike the event. I would only recommend it to other people that actually know they enjoy hanging out and working with kids.

Meet a Pledge!

Dinh Nguyen

- I was born in Vietnam. I moved to America when I was in the middle of 8th grade and right now I'm living in Richmond.
- I'm a 3rd year, pharmaceutical chemistry major
- If I can be anything, I would be a camera because I get to travel around and see lots of places.
- If I have 100 pennies, I would change them into a dollar bill so that it can fit in my pocket.
- My favorite event so far would be the pledge retreat because I get to bond much closer to my trainers and groupies and make me realize that there are people who have been in my situations. I also learned how to make s'mores from Martin; it was my first time eating s'mores.
- My pet peeve is when people change the toilet paper roll and they put it on the wrong side.

Meet an Active!

Anne Huang

- When I'm 90, I guess what will matter to me most is my family.
- Something I really want to do is pull a fire alarm but haven't done yet because of consequences.
- A good laugh will always lift my spirits when I'm down.
- I'd make it rain with 100 pennies but I can't guarantee it won't hurt.
- The nicest thing someone has done for me is change me and shape me into a better me.
