

Alpha Phi Omega

Iota Phi Chapter

LFS Spotlight of the Week

Interview with Coleen Lee

Tuesday 05/07/13

Leadership: Surviving the Apocalypse

It was a pretty interesting workshop. It's one of those where you have to be involved, rather than just listen to someone talk. In the workshop, we had to decide a role for everyone in the group. Only 4 people could survive. We learned that when making decisions, everyone should agree on it and it's not a group decision if not everyone agrees.

Announcements

Do you have questions, concerns, compliments, complaints, or any other comments about ExComm, things going on, or Iota Phi in general?

Send them to this link :

"<http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/SJ58SMW>"

Meet an Active !!

Name: Alex Shieh

3th Year

Major: Managerial Economics and Applied Statistics

- Before he dies, he wants to skydive and travel to Massachusetts and Taiwan (places his family used to live)
- Most important thing: getting things done and having close relationships with friends and family

- Fun Fact: had surgery on his...nether regions... when he was 8 years old
- Random Fact: Makes farting noises with his hands
- "I'm really introverted so if I zone out at the CoHo, I'm probably tired"
- Likes naps. Takes at least 3 naps on Saturdays

Important Dates

05/12	IC: Potluck with Chico
1pm
05/13	Fellowboat: Segundo DC
7:30-9pm
05/21	PLEDGE / ACTIVE REQS DUE!!

Meet a Pledge !!

Name:
Fan Guo

2nd Year

Major: Neurobiology, Physiology and Behavior

- AKA Vivian Guo
- Joined APO to make friends
- Favorite memory: BBBLB Revealing—only child and always wanted a sibling—"so much love"
- Likes to play League of Legends and paint her nails
- Can't draw, hates glue
- Loves ceramics and woodshop—took classes for them in junior high
- Is an open book and will tell you anything if you ask (unless she doesn't like you).
- Played piano for 13-14 years before she quit. Now she plays guitar